MILLSBORO, Del. (AP)- Millsboro town officials have tentatively approved the annexation of 100 more acres for the Del Pointe Resort and Racino.

The annexation will be finalized if the town approves the developers' comprehensive site plan. The annexation includes 70 residential acres and 30 commercially zoned acres along Route 113.

The town has already annexed 377 acres which could include a hotel, paintball facility, waterpark and harness racing track.

Town Manager Faye Lingo says a specific development plan is expected next year. But Developer Preston Schell says state legislation to allow the racino hasn't come through so the project is stalled.
